

Summer Camp Deposits, Full Fees, and Refund Policy

Wonderland Camp wants as many campers to be able to attend as our summer schedule allows. For this reason:

- When you register for camp, you must pay a deposit of $300. Fifty dollars of this $300 is non-refundable if you are unable to attend camp. Or, you may send verification that your fee will be paid by someone else (for instance, a third party like a county agency or a charitable group); and
- You must pay the remainder of the fee before the Sunday your camper comes to Wonderland Camp.

Our Refund Policy

- We refund the $300 deposit minus the non-refundable $50 for a total of $250 up until ten weeks before the Sunday the camper is due to arrive. You must call camp to arrange the refund.
- We refund half the deposit minus the non-refundable $50, for a total of $100, up until six weeks before the Sunday the camper is due to arrive. You must call camp to arrange the refund.
- We refund half the deposit minus the non-refundable $50, for a total of $100 if the camper is hospitalized during the three days before he/she is due to arrive at camp or if a parent or guardian dies during that time.
- We do not issue any refunds within six weeks of the first day of camp or if a camper leaves camp for any reason after checking in on Sunday.
